

The Children will be making these on Feb. 4th. We will decorate the paper plates and cut and put hearts inside. You can take a heart out and explain to the kids what it means and you can have the kids put their own interpretation of love.

